

Spring in Rondeau!

May 2019

Visitor Centre Hours

May 1 – 19: OPEN 7:00 – 5:00

May 20 – 31: OPEN 9:00 – 4:00

When and Where?	What?
Sunday, May 5th 9:00pm – 4:00pm Visitor Centre	Special Event – Happy Birthday Rondeau Provincial Park! Don't miss out on our 125th birthday celebration! <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Rondeau Bay Waterfowler's BBQ Lunch – 11:00am – 1:00pm-Bird House Building – all day (while supplies last)-Canadian Raptor Conservancy Bird Show – 1:00pm-Cake cutting and refreshments – 2:00pm (after the Bird Show)
Saturday, May 11th 12:30pm Visitor Centre	DIY Program – Vinyl Designs on a Travel Mug Eat. Sleep. Bird. Repeat. Take an afternoon break from birding and come spice up your travel mug, with a fun birding quote. Pre-registration is required as spots are limited! Call the Visitor Centre for details and to sign up!
Sunday, May 12th 10:30am Spicebush Trail	Guided Hike – Flowers of the Forest May is the best time to enjoy the beautiful carpets of early Spring wildflowers in Rondeau! Hike with Olivia this Mother's Day to learn some unknown facts about these beauties and work on your flower identification skills!
Saturday, May 18th 12:00pm – 2:00pm Visitor Centre	Meet the Naturalist – Serious About Sloughs Ever wonder what might live below the surface of our Park's temporary ponds? Joins us any time with some dip nets to get down and dirty and see what we can find!
Sunday, May 19th 12:00pm – 2:00pm Marsh Trail	Meet the Naturalist – Pollinators: the Bees Knees! Drop by any time to see Olivia and bring all of your bee questions! Learn the importance of Bumble Bees and come catch some of these BEEautiful insects - bring a bug net if you have one!
Sunday, May 26th 10:30am Tulip Tree Trail	Guided Hike – Wanted: Dead or Alive Noticing an abundance of dead trees in the park? Join Caitlin to learn why this is happening and why we should still be appreciating our dead and dying trees in Rondeau